HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE SHOW'S LATEST ADDITION.

HooligansKids

Names featuring in this new area of the show for smaller, niche brands include Fairtrade childrenswear label HooligansKids, which is ethically made in South Africa.

Dandy Dodo sources rare fabrics to produce its limited edition childrenswear for 6 months to 6 years, with no more than 30 pieces produced per style.

A contemporary range of children's hair accessories are available from Little Pip's.

K for Keeps works with British manufacturers to produce its non-seasonal childrenswear collection. It also offers a bespoke service where any item can be produced as a one-off.

Little Miss Twin Stars offers baby and children's sterling silver and high-end costume jewellery including bracelets, necklaces, charms and earrings.

Dolls & Dirt is launching its new childrenswear ranges – Dollface for girls and Dirtboy for boys – both catering for 2-11 years.

Premium footwear brand Ash makes its show debut with a kids' range that takes inspiration from its adults' sportswear line. Key styles include the high top trainer.

Beau Loves offers bibs in unique fabrics with names such as Born & Bred and Scally Wag Crossbones.

Other highlights include footwear from Froddo and a collection of winter footwear from Sorel. Babywear, gifts and accessories including a new range of tights, socks and sleepbags is available from Plum Collections. Three-in-one gift sets featuring a T-shirt, soft toy and bag from Pixie and Punk, ride-on bouncy toys from Happy Hopperz, baby swaddles from Swaddle Designs and a bright clothing collection from Nadadelazos. Also showing is Collins Knitwear, Sew-Easy Costumes, Sophie and Bonnie and Mykidoo.
